

What Is Your Company's Carbon Footprint & Why Does That Matter?

Stephen Handler, ClearSky Climate Solutions

WHEN: THURSDAY MAY 13, 2010 11:30 AM- 1:00 PM

WHERE: NACET CONFERENCE ROOM-2225 N. GEMINI DR. FLAGSTAFF

Businesses of all shapes and sizes are becoming interested in their greenhouse gas emissions, a.k.a. their "carbon footprint." Why should your company care? Pending regulations, green marketing appeal, and consumer connection can all be part of the answer, depending on your particular situation.

In this class, Stephen Handler of ClearSky Climate Solutions will explain these various concerns and incentives for managing your company's carbon footprint, as well as how to conduct your very own corporate greenhouse gas assessment.
